

High calibre staff key to profitable success

The Directors of Bow Energy Ltd have announced that John De Stefani, currently Bow's CEO Commercial, has been appointed Bow's Chief Executive Officer.

Current CEO and Managing Director, Ron Prefontaine will assume the post of Executive Director, ensuring his considerable industry experience and expertise continues to be on hand for the benefit of the Company.

Commenting on Mr De Stefani's appointment, Mr Prefontaine said, "John has demonstrated in the almost two years since he joined Bow that he has the vision, skills and tenacity required to manage Bow's steep growth path.

"With the recent appointment also of Vic Palanyk as Bow's Chief Operating Officer and the calibre of Bow's staff and assets, I am confident Bow will continue to grow to its full potential in the medium term and ultimately into one of Australia's most successful and profitable energy businesses."

Mr De Stefani is a chartered accountant with 19 years of business experience.

Prior to joining Bow, he spent eight years as General Manager/Director of an expanding power generator.

A member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Australia and the Australian Institute of Company Directors, Mr De Stefani has a Bachelor of Business from the Queensland University of Technology and an MBA from London Business School. ■

Expertise: John De Stefani is set to become Bow Energy's new CEO.